2008 Work Days

Midwest Air Wing Club Members:

Following are the projected work days for the 2008 flying season. The dates are subject to change based on seasonal weather conditions such as drought or heavy rainfall. Check back here for the updated and most current work dates.

The ROEs (rules of engagement) for work days are simple. Call or email Bob Meyers to let him know when you want to work. He'll let you know what is available or what we need help with and sign you up. Once you sign up it is your responsibility to be sure to be there to work. If for some reason you can't make it – call Bob or another club officer and let them know as soon as possible.

Following are the work days for the 2008 flying season:

Remember club members now earn credit toward annual dues. A maximum of $150.00 of work credits can be earned each calendar year. We encourage all members to come out on work days, however only 3 work day credits can be applied toward dues. There is credit available for participating in club events and credit for attending the annual club officer election.

I appreciate everything you do to keep the Midwest Air Wing the premiere RC Club and flying field it is today. Keep it up - together we've got a great future ahead of us!
